RHYTHMIC PORTRAIT

Mounira Al Solh is a Lebanese artist. She created a collection by drawing pictures of refugees and writing down their stories. Her exhibit was featured at the Art Institute of Chicago. You can find additional information at moxieboxart.com.

CHALLENGE

Now that you have practiced drawing your own face, you can try drawing others. In the style of Mounira Al Solh, draw portraits on notebook paper. Here are some ideas for your portrait notebook:

1. Interview the people in your family. Create an album with their portraits next to their stories.
2. Ask your friends to e-mail or text you a photo of themselves and ask them to tell you one thing that you don't know about them. Create a friend album.
3. Find some images of your favorite musicians/artists/athletes, etc. Draw their portraits and write one of their quotes or lines next to each.
